READING, TUESDAY NOVEMBER 15, 1864.

TO OUR READERS.

To-day we present this, the last man FATHER ARRESTAN, in the shape of an extra as a workly compaign paper. As soon as the necessary arrangements can be made we will communic the publication of a permanent daily newspaper probably under the seme title of "PAYMER ASEA-HAM. It will give from day to day all the latest war and other important news by telegraph, and a full and complete record of the local events of this city and county. We hope, and firmly before, that each an enterprise will receive the liberal support of our citizens generally. We thank the people of this and other counties for their substantial support during the glorious campaign just closed. Very soon we hope to have the daily before the public.

Correction.

In our haste report of the presentation of the beautiful silk flag to the Lincoln Chib last week, we reglected to mention Miss Agnes Breniser as hav-ing collected a considerable amount of the funds.

Among the list of Marshal's sids for the Democratic procession just before the election ap-pears the name of our friend Asron A. Einstine, of this city. Mr. Einstine is not only a good and loyal this city. Mr. Einstine is not only a good man toylu man, but may be classed among those who dowe their whole duty to secure the re-election of Homest Old Abe to the Presidential chair. His name ap-peared among the list without his consent, and we peared among the hat without his consent, and we venture to say in Mr. E's headf, that he would not permit himself to be seen with a crowd that give three cheers when it was rumored on election day that Gen. Butler had been membered by a New York mob. This amnouscement should have been unde last week, but was postpoured owing to the crowded state of our columns.

The Fourth Ward!

The Fourth Ward in this city done nobly! One handred and seventeen majority for Lincoln, Johnson, and Freedom, attests her devotion to the Union. We have made a chear gain of 23 in the good old Fourth.

Another Presentation.
